

ADP participated as a Platinum sponsor of the NSN National Conference in Dallas, TX, August 15 – 16. This 2008 conference set a record with 826 members in attendance.

As part of the three day conference, ADP had the opportunity to network with NSN chapter officers and members at multiple events such as an ADP hosted hospitality suite, participation in the opening ceremonies and a booth at the career fair. One of the highlights of the event was a VP Panel discussion entitled “CEO Of Your Career...Taking It To The Next Level” which took place during the opening ceremonies.

SBS Sales AVP, Michael Houston, represented ADP on the esteemed panel of five, and shared his experiences and tips on a successful career in sales.

The National Sales Network (NSN) is a not-for-profit membership organization whose objective is to meet the professional and developmental needs of African-American sales and sales management professionals.

For more information on NSN, please visit their website at www.salesnetwork.org

THE NSN/ADP TEAM

Far left- Mike Houston on the VP Panel