

ADP® helps manage multiple clients with one solution

Accounting Management Advisors believes its success depends entirely on the success of its clients. They offer a comprehensive menu of accounting services, including tax planning and preparation, accounting, bookkeeping and payroll services, all delivered with a commitment to quality and value.

Business challenges

- Manual and time-consuming office administration
- Finding a provider that can help manage payroll for multiple clients
- Managing compliance due to changing regulations

Switching to RUN Powered by ADP® provides Accounting Management Advisors with a comprehensive solution to help their clients with easy payroll, benefits options, and compliance capabilities while allowing them more time to focus on steadily growing the business and keeping their clients happy.

Time for a change

As the needs of her clients grew, it became clear that those needs would surpass her previous provider's payroll and HR capabilities. While reviewing options that could help satisfy the situation, the field narrowed down, and a decision was made confidently. "We needed a solution that could allow us to provide more than just a payroll service to our clients, and with RUN, we can offer them so much more, including benefits, workers' compensation insurance and retirement options," says Armetta.

Multiple clients, one solution

RUN is an excellent choice for a firm that manages payrolls for multiple clients, because it offers a comprehensive and user-friendly platform that streamlines the payroll process and makes it easier to manage various clients. For Accounting Management Advisors, RUN is an all-in-one solution that has helped the firm save time and enhance client satisfaction. Adds Armetta, "My firm processes multiple client payrolls daily, and partnering with ADP was a significant decision because they help us handle the needs of our clients efficiently and effectively, as RUN is fast and reliable. We aim to keep our clients happy, and ADP helps us accomplish that."

Excellent support makes a difference

RUN's dedicated client service team is available to troubleshoot any questions or concerns the firm or its clients may have. This level of service helps ensure the firm can provide its clients with the highest level of service and devote time to managing the other functions it offers besides payroll. Adds Armetta, "ADP customer service has been excellent. Managing as many payrolls as we do gives us peace of mind knowing support is available whenever we need help resolving an issue."

Confident with compliance

By calculating payroll taxes automatically, RUN helps ensure compliance with federal, state, and local tax laws. As a result, her clients can rest easy knowing that their payroll is managed correctly and that the changing regulations are up to date in the system. "Small businesses are challenged with keeping up with compliance requirements. RUN completely takes that worry off the plate of my clients. As a full-service provider, ADP remains current on changing regulations, which helps my clients avoid costly penalties and remain happy," says Armetta.

We needed a solution that could allow us to provide more than just a payroll service to our clients, and with RUN, we can offer them so much more, including benefits, workers' compensation insurance and retirement options.”
