

Dependable and dedicated support

With ADP®, you're never alone. We are committed to your success and want to make sure you have all the support you need. Our account managers are here to offer dedicated support, expert guidance and best practices so you can confidently and effectively manage your human capital. If you've got questions, our account managers have answers — just ask our clients:

Our account manager, Chris, is the most incredible person you will ever talk to. Not only is he amazing at his job but is always willing to help — just spectacular in so many ways! He has been nothing but kind and patient and just incredible with all his assistance.

Brendan Corrigan, accounts payable/payroll, St. Ignatius School

ADP offers a dependable and robust system for payroll, timekeeping, benefits, reporting and other processes. In addition to a great system, the customer service and dedicated care that I receive is excellent!

Rose Michalec, controller,
Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston

My account manager is just simply amazing. She knows her stuff and is very responsive and polite. I enjoy working with her. It is nice to have someone that you can count on for assistance when you're in a pickle.

Robin Honeycutt, payroll manager,
Architectural Graphics Inc.

Whenever I hit a roadblock or am unsure of how to accomplish a task or what to do within the ADP system, I never have to panic because I know that ADP provides ample ways to ask questions or to get training to help me.

Julie Johnson, senior HR generalist,
Universal Instruments

ADP Workforce Now® is a robust system with so much capability! We've been assigned an AWESOME account manager, Cosandra, to help use this platform to its fullest potential! I'm pretty sure we've only scratched the surface. Excited to learn more!

Toni Fernihough, HR manager, Uniparts Olsen, Inc.

Our relationship with our ADP account manager, Troy, is amazing. He goes above and beyond to assist and resolve any issues we have. Troy has helped us find cost savings and introduced us to the latest and newest products that can better serve us.

Ami Armstrong, controller, Century Rehabilitation Inc.
