

Here for you, through it all

Unsteady times call for the steadiest HR and payroll partner. In over 70 years, we've never wavered in helping our clients adapt to changing regulations. We're here for you to help address your toughest HCM challenges and help you stay compliant.

But don't just take our word for it — hear what our clients have to say about how we've helped them in their greatest times of need with:

Service and support

Our ADP service consultants have come through for us during this challenging time. They helped us move to direct mail for our live checks, which was a huge help for us. Plus, they did it in record time as the decision was very last minute prior to payroll being submitted. They've been so helpful!

Brenda Hook, payroll manager, Garmin

Our account executive has helped with facilitating all the changes we are making due to COVID-19, including furloughs, changing employees to 'work from home' status, changing to direct mail, implementing paperless payroll and taking advantage of some of the Cares Act opportunities. She has been great in helping us navigate through all this.

Lydia Chodnicki, director of payroll, Education Affiliates

Anywhere, anytime technology

ADP has made working from home a breeze. Practically everything that we can do in the office can just as easily be done at home (with the exception of some printing functions). The country, and most of the world, may be on hold for now, but payroll processing never gets paused, and ADP helps make sure we can still get funds owed to employees in these critical times.

Mariya Zheleznyak, payroll specialist, Gatehouse Media

We elected the ADP direct mail option, which allows the employees' checks/pay statements to be sent directly to their homes and eliminates the need for someone to be in the office to receive the them. THANK YOU, ADP!

Laura Winters, HRIS project lead, The Hebrew Home at Riverdale

Resources

ADP is keeping us informed of all the changes related to payroll and assists us in making sure we are paying our employees correctly.

Kathy Brubaker, payroll manager, Hubbard Broadcasting

ADP has been pushing out webinars and content to help with the large amount of legislative changes and breaking developments. I want to say thanks to our ADP account representative who seems to maintain a positive attitude even though I know her phone is ringing off the hook.

Danielle Ramos, payroll and HRIS manager, Multiplan
