

Here for you, through it all

Unsteady times call for the steadiest HR and payroll partner. In over 70 years, we've never wavered in helping small business owners adapt to changing regulations.

But don't just take our word for it — hear what our clients have to say about how we've helped them navigate the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP):

Just getting the PPP is arguably the only reason we're still in business, and the fact that ADP had everything I needed available so quickly is probably one of the reasons we got it. That was pretty huge, and ADP played a big role in that.

Tony Piombo, co-founder, Forno Piombo

ADP has been really helpful in a lot of ways. We had to provide documents to apply for the PPP loans, and having them accessible through ADP was so easy that I almost forgot I did it. ADP had all our tax documents available that we needed to submit for the loan.

Rachel Wallach and Carin Ferdowsian, owners, Oaks Veterinary Urgent Care

When we had to file for our PPP loans, ADP's documents were extremely helpful. Everything was broken out individually, which was invaluable to have already set up. It helped us avoid any pitfalls with human error and saved a lot of time and hassle on our end.

Chris Curry and Elie Tilghman, owners, Adapt Kitchen and Juice Bar

We needed a timely response on the PPP application, making sure that we had the data in the correct format. As the rules changed, ADP did a pretty fast pivot onto the revised set of regulations for what the SBA decided they needed. We had revised reports fairly quickly. ADP did a great job.

Joe Burum, owner, Go Launch Pros

When applying for a PPP loan, I needed to determine average weekly payroll, so I logged onto ADP and saw that they had already created a report format for it. It was excellent! I didn't have to do any extra work.

Sharon Marshall, production-design engineer, Bespoke Coach

ADP was extremely helpful when I needed paperwork to apply for the PPP — I had exactly what I needed from them. They had the document already prepared for my loan application, and it got approved right away because everything was clear cut. I was really glad I use ADP because they made it so easy.
