

1 ADP Boulevard
Roseland, N.J. 07068

Date: October 12, 2022
From: ADP Global Security Organization
Subject: Security Alert: Fraudulent Wire Transfer Instructions

ADP has been made aware that some clients may have recently received emails claiming to come from ADP that contained fraudulent wire transfer instructions for payroll funding. These emails did not originate from ADP and our internal teams are investigating the origin of these messages. We encourage our clients to reach out to their service representative if they have recently received wire transfer instructions to verify the authenticity of the request.

Message Sender (may vary):

ADP_Service@adp.com <ADP_Service<at>adp.com>
ADP_Service@adp.com <ADP_Service<at>nawlنيا.com>
Senatore, Sara (ES) <Sara.Senatore.ADP<at>nawlنيا.com>

Message Subject:

Wire Instructions for Money Movement

The ADP Global Security Organization continues to actively monitor this situation. Clients are encouraged to visit our website at www.adp.com/trust to learn more about how ADP protects data, and how clients can help protect themselves. Protecting our clients and their data from malicious activity is a top priority for ADP.